CITY HOSTS TRANSIT STUDY OPEN HOUSE

Thursday, Nov. 3, 2005
Esplanade -- Cutbank Room
4 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Medicine Hat - The City of Medicine Hat is undertaking a Transit/Special Transportation Study to best meet the transportation needs of Medicine Hat residents.

The consulting firm of IBI Group has been retained to:

- review Medicine Hat transit's service needs and policies and procedures,
- develop service options and a long-range transit plan to address growth in the city, and
- guide the implementation of transit service improvements over the next 5 to 10 years.

Public input is important and the City's encourages all residents to attend an informational Open House on Thursday, Nov. 3 in the Cutbank Room on the second floor of the Esplanade.

"IBI has conducted many such projects across Canada and recently completed similar project in Red Deer and we look forward to working with them find ways to better serve our customers," says Hugh English, Manager of Transit Services.
